Bo Dunaway Named Head Of Recreation

I. F. (Bo) Dunaway has been named full time recreation director for the City of Elba. He will officially begin his duties on or about October 1st. However, he started on Wednesday (yesterday) that he was already lining up volunteer help to keep the recreation program running smoothly.

Following the announcement of Dunaway's appointment, part-time director Alvin Cordell submitted his resignation, saying that by passing him over for the full-time job, the city council had given him a vote of no confidence. Cordell told this newspaper he wanted to continue working with young people and would probably leave Elba to realize that aim.

Dunaway said in an interview with THE ELBA CLIPPER, "I will get into the recreation program as soon as possible. I am looking forward to the challenge. Of course, I will need a lot of help from the people of Elba; I know these people and am confident there is a large number who are anxious to help."

Dunaway mentioned he had already asked one man for his help and had received a pledge of total support in continuing the Elba recreation program, which has been heralded as probably the best ever in the history of the community.

Police Sponsor Special Film

The Elba Police Department is sponsoring a film Saturday night on Child Abuse. The film will be shown at 7:00 p.m. in the Elba City Courthouse. All interested adults are urged to attend, according to Police Chief M. W. Johnston.

CBS To Show Cornelia On October 21

The CBS television crew that was in Elba last Friday during the Cornelia Wallace Day activities were out of New York City. They were filming footage for a special program on Mrs. Wallace. It will be aired at 9:00 a.m. Central time, October 21st, on a host of activities during the day and evening by her hometown folks. Many times she took a few seconds to stop and speak to old friends or relatives. Each time there was another standing by to speak to Alabama's First Lady. However, when Mrs. Wallace bent down to talk to little Perry Finner who suffered an attack of encephalitis last spring, there were no interruptions.

Young Perry was in a coma for many weeks and is now receiving therapy in an effort to return the many things the boy took from him. The people of Elba have opened their hearts and their pocketbooks to the youngster. (See pictures of Cornelia Wallace Day on page 14.)

Monday night, about 11:00 p.m., this trailer truck loaded with peanuts crashed into the Mulberry Heights school, and stopped when the front bumper reached the opposite wall. No one was in the truck at the time. It had been parked on Carver Drive several hours earlier and apparently the brakes gave way and the truck rolled down the hill on its own.

Lions Club To Meet Monday

The Lions Club will meet on Monday night, September 22, at 7:00, at Holley's Restaurant.

SS Meeting Moves To City Hall

The Social Security meetings will be held in the City Hall, effective this Thursday. They are moving from the Board of Education annex.

Adolph C. Johnson, Jr. of Elba was the driver of this 1968 Ford that went out of control and crashed into the woods last Saturday afternoon at 3:45. Passenger in the car was Henry Waters, also of Elba. Waters was treated at the local hospital and released, but Johnson is still confined to the hospital with broken bones and other injuries. Both men were taken to the hospital by the Elba Rescue Squad. Captain James Spurrin of the Elba Police Department investigated the accident.

First Lady Talks With Perry

Sonya Dodd Named Little Miss Kinston

The 1975-76 Little Miss Kinston Contest was held on Thursday, Sept. 11, with Sonya Dodd, the daughter of Mrs. Hazel Dodd, crowned as this year's queen.

Sonya, a 7-year old cutie, will represent Kinston in the Little Miss Peanut Contest to be held in Dothan on Oct. 22, during the annual Peanut Festival.

Sonya is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. J.P. Weeks of Kinston, and the great-granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Randal Bedsole of Route Three Elba.

Coach Paul Bass asked the Elba City School officials to accept his resignation as football coach at the end of this football season. He stated that after much prayerful consideration, he made this decision but would like to continue in his same position for the rest of this school year.

Coach Bass had nothing but the highest praise and regard for his football team and coaching staff. He said, "We have a good group of boys who want to play football, and before the season is over, they are going to develop into a fine football team and win some football games."

City Council Barely Has Quorum

The Elba City Council met Tuesday night in what was expected to be a short uneventful meeting. Except for a bit of confusion and maneuvering during the selection of a recreation director the meeting was routine but by no means short. Mayor Sam Sawyer was absent and Councilman Virgil Coleman became sick and left early.

First on the agenda was a report by employees of the Coffee County School Board explaining the planned new program to serve handicapped children. Also appearing before the council were several parents of such children who were appealing for help to get their children to Enterprise Ozark. These parents were promised help in securing transportation.

The council voted to increase the authorization to borrow money for the recent improvements at the football field from $6,000 to $6,953. This money will be paid back from the left over gasoline tax monies not used in bond retirement.

A number of city boards have people with terms expiring and the council was informed of this and will fill the vacancies at a later date. A letter was read to the council from the Dothan Peanut Festival about Elba entering a float in the parade. Councilman Ronnie Vaughan was appointed to check about some donations to pay the minimum $500 to prepare and enter a float.

Other letters read included one of thanks from the Human Resources and an invitation to attend a meeting and support in Dothan.

Bill Cahill of the Southeast Regional Development Corporation will be asked to attend the next regular meeting. Also a report will be prepared on the progress of the $40,000 HUD grant.

Police Chief Johnston reported on activities in his department. He first told the council of an attorney general opinion that Elba could enforce school attendance by all children under age 16. Johnston also asked for at least one new police car saying that three of the present cars are worn out and costing more to maintain than new ones would cost.

The council then began interviewing applicants for the full-time recreation director's position. The interviews went smoothly and each of three applicants was asked about the same group of questions. Following the interviews, the council went into executive session for a few minutes "to discuss personalities."

Following the executive session when all but the council and the city clerk were excluded, the group returned to open meeting and Mayor pro-tem Charles Ellis, who was serving as chairman in the absence of Mayor Sam Sawyer, opened the floor for nominations.

It was during the next few minutes that some old familiar confusion appeared. Councilman Wayland Sharpless nominated Jack Holley and after a pause, Ronnie Vaughan voiced a second. Then Ben Carpenter nominated I. F. (Bo) Dunaway and chairman Ellis stated a second. When this was questioned, Ellis vacated the chair and asked Carpenter to please act as chairman, so Ellis could second the nomination.

Carpenter immediately called a five minute recess to get a legal opinion on the situation. After getting the opinion that no nomination needed a second, Carpenter reopened the meeting and turned the chair back to Ellis.

With two nominations on the floor, the nominations were closed.

Councilman Sharpless then made a motion to adjourn, which failed when there was no second to the motion.

The next page of the story was to vote on the two nominations. Ellis called for the vote in alphabetical order. The vote for Dunaway was Ellis, Vaughan and Carpenter-yes and Sharpless-no. The vote for Holley was Sharpless-yes and Dunaway-no.

Krista Dyess Named Little Miss

"All I Want For Christmas Is My Two Front Teeth" could easily be the song of Elba's new Little Miss Elba. Krista Dyess, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Dyess, was named to represent Elba as reigning Little Miss Elba during the coming year.

One of her first official acts will be to represent Elba in the annual Peanut Festival in Dothan next month. She will also compete for the title of Little Miss Peanut during the week of festivities at Dothan.

First runner-up in the Lions Club-sponsored event was Sonya Williamson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elkin Williamson.

Second runner-up was Sabrina Hooks, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Hooks. All three girls are second-grade students at Elba Elementary School.

BREAKUP

Last week we began to look at the break-up of homes, and our discussion was that divorce is failure... and that America has little use for failure except about marriage.

There is one state that has quit using the term DIVORCE, and is using Dissolution, and it appears on legal documents and in the newspapers. No matter what we call it, the result is the same. The marriage has joined the statistics, the children have become part of the 300,000 children affected by divorce. And the courts have had to decide how the material possessions will be divided.

Statistically speaking, we are a nation of incurable optimists at least. While the divorce rate soars, so does the

"And His Name through faith in His Name hath made this man strong, whom you see and know: yea, the faith which is by him hath given to this soundness in the presence of you all."

ACTS 3:16

ELBA GENERAL HOSPITAL PATIENTS

Persons admitted to Elba General Hospital during the period of September 10 through 16 are as follows:
Mattie Goodson, Travis C. Whitman, M. C. Abernethy, Leslie Harrison, John E. Kyles, Thelma Crook, William Moore, Christine Brunson, Mary Bundy, Sharon McGill, Elaine Holand, Pearl Lunsford, Elva Gray, Herbert Weas, Elma L. Morrow, Martha McDougall, Carolyn Sizemore, Janice Culver, Henry Waters, Adolph Johnson, Gladys Parker, Anne Tucker, J. P. Parker, Mary Stricklin, Byron J. Foley, Robbie Graham, Eunice Culver, Raymond Nelson, Sherline Williams.

Those discharged during the same period of time are as follows:
Mattie Goodson, Travis C. Whitman, M. C. Abernethy, John Kyles, Thelma Crook, Kathryn Moore, Christine Brunson, Mary Bundy, Sharon McGill, Melvone Bond, William T. Watson, Leslie Harrison, Henry Lee Waters, Martha McDougall, Charles E. Hudson, Gerald Tucker, Corine Daniels, Margaret Rowe, Travis Whitman, Deborah Miller, Willard Allen, Estelle King, Jerome Craft, Mildred Brooks, Ora Lee Padgett, Lena Madson, Myra Stokes, Deborah Farris, Henry Clark, Willie Price, George Dillard, Raim King.

Fifty years ago, almost one-fifth of the population never married. Now, all but 6-1/2 percent of women and 7 percent of men have married at least once. Statistically speaking, divorces are marriage type people, but to carry statistics to the ultimate conclusion, we find they are selfish and misguided idealists who think life is worth living simply by changing partners - or the search for happiness ends with a new wedding band. Next week I will try to show you what it has done to the youngest group of young people.

Teen Thinkers

What do you think about President Ford's administration? Shirley Liptrot: "Super disaster." Carolyn Bradshaw: "Couldn't be any worse." Betty Cardwell: "I don't." Machele Gideon: "A great thing going." Darlene White: "I think he could do a lot better if he tried." Tressa Baggott: "Think he could use some help."

Editorial

Terrific! That's what we hope this year will be. And what a welcome we received on our first day. Everyone's eyes were instantly drawn to the beautiful new floors that greeted us on arrival at school this year. The newly-painted halls, completed the picture, making our school much more attractive and clean. Also, there were nice stone benches that were left as a gift by the Seniors of '75 that were scattered about the school yard for us to enjoy at recess. We know you noticed all this too and were pleased, but have you stopped to think how you would feel if it were suddenly transformed back to the way it was? We think you would feel as disappointed and let-down as we would. But, it could happen. How? It could happen if we prop our feet against the walls; if we mark on the walls; if we spill food and drink on the floors; if we don't take time to wipe our feet when they're muddy or dirty before coming inside; if we drop chewing gum on the floor; or if we tramp up and down the halls for no purpose when we could be outside at recess. We know we don't want to give up our new, fresh beautiful environment, and we feel that you don't either!

Krazy Kwestion

What would you say if John Deaver came to your house tomorrow? Coach Lindsey: "I'm Sorry." Queenie Gatlin: "I want to live with you in your log cabin." Henrietta Allen: "Hi! Come on in, have a seat, and sing to me a while." Sharon Jacobs: "Just sit down and let me call Teresa." Anita Spear: "Uh, what are you doing here?"

NEWS FROM YOUNG REBELS

What in the world do you do with 33 eager, anxious, tearful, happy, excited six-year-olds? In our first grade class we have a lot of fun learning by singing, learning poems, working, coloring, cutting and pasting. Our main objective is, of course, to learn how to "read." We have many different ideas about what we like best about this new place called school. Here are a few examples. Stevie likes writing. Beverly likes playing. Jeffery likes being quiet. Ginger likes going outside. Tammy likes to play. Connie likes to work.

Joseph likes to look at books, and Sherry likes to work in school. Even though we all like different things best, we all want to have a happy first year learning many new things.

Senior Of The Week

Featured this week as our senior is Gail Davis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Davis of Rt. 1, Elba. Gail lists her hobbies and favorite pastimes as playing softball, dancing and listening to music. Two-faced people are Gail's pet peeve. When asked what she likes about ZC, Gail replied, "The friendliness of the students and the closeness of the teachers and students." Gail feels our school could be improved by adding air conditioning and by the students having more respect for the campus and by keeping it cleaner. When Gail finishes high school, she plans to attend a college or trade school and work towards becoming a registered nurse. Best of luck, Gail!

Teacher Talk

This year we're lucky to have several additional teachers at ZC. To introduce them to everyone, we'll spotlight them one at a time in Teacher Talk, beginning with Mrs. Sylvia Hudson. Mrs. Hudson starts her day team-teaching in the first grade; then she has classes of history and science in junior high and high school. Mrs. Hudson said she likes the friendliness and helpful attitude of all the students and faculty. The main improvement she sees needed to be made is cooling the hot rooms. The mother of a three-year-old named Troy, Mrs. Hudson and her husband, Tony live in Elba where Mr. Hudson is employed at Cook Chevrolet. Her favorite pastimes are golfing, swimming and playing tennis.

Rebel 'Ritings

NOTICE

I need your poems and all of your tales. And all of your slogans, from zebras to whales. To put in this space of the new year. And along with it PLEASE put your name and your grade.

Rebel To Remember

So often only the most popular, most "outgoing" people's pictures appear in newspapers over and over again. We feel that every student at ZC is great and that each has something special about him that makes him an important part of our school. In this weekly feature, we plan to spotlight students with various talents and superior qualities. Maybe you'll be chosen because you're a hard worker, or because you have an even disposition, or maybe because you have an interesting hobby. But just remember, that by being that special person that you are, you're likely to be that Rebel To Remember.

This week we have chosen Darlene Barr as our Rebel To Remember. Darlene is a junior who always has a friendly smile and kind word for everyone. Darlene is a modern-day miss who is a part of the scene but makes an impression with her good manners and straight thinking. Besides the outstanding talent of high intelligence, she can whip that softball and is an asset to the girls' softball team.

HURRICANE ELOISE GOES WILD TUESDAY

People of Elba, Coffee County and the entire Wiregrass area were put to test early this week when Hurricane Eloise came roaring in from the Florida panhandle and raised havoc with entire communities.

Apparently Elba caught the edge of the tropical storm, as other communities seem to be far more ravaged than the local community. Communications disruptions have caused accurate assessments to be slow, but by piecing together bits of information, it appears the storm, along with 130-mile winds, hit about Ft. Walton Beach, Florida, and headed inland in a North-Northeasterly direction. It hit hard at DeFuniak Springs, Florida, Samson and Geneva, before Enterprise and New Brockton became the Bull's Eye, and moved on up to Troy, and still bearing East, moved on to the Auburn area.

Winds estimated as high as 70 miles per hour hit Elba about mid-morning Tuesday, ripping up trees, tops off buildings and disrupting electric service. It was estimated that all electric service would not be restored until possibly Thursday (today).

In the city limits of Elba only two mobile homes were overturned. Neither was occupied. One was a new trailer, and the other a used one. However, a short drive North, South or East would soon reveal mobile homes overturned, many, many trees uprooted or snapped off, and buildings damaged or destroyed. Power and telephone lines were down in so many places, it appeared almost impossible that service could be restored in many days. It took long, hard hours by regular and extra crews to get trees off lines and the lines back into service.

South of Elba on the Elba-Samson Highway, Preston Kelley, Jr.'s grocery store was completely destroyed. Kelley had left the building just minutes before the roof and both ends disappeared with the storm. As soon as the wind had subsided, friends, neighbors and relatives flocked to the site to help Kelley salvage what he could from the ruins. Kelley's store is located at the intersection of the Elba-Samson Highway and Highway 134. Reeves Grocery across the road was not severely damaged.

Several mobile homes, barns and storage houses were turned over, torn up or were suffering from tree damage. Chicken houses in several areas of the county were damaged or completely destroyed. Near Chancellor, south of Enterprise, four houses had the broilers caught for processing on Monday night - Tuesday night there was only one chicken house left. Those chickens were destined for the ConAgra plant at Battens Crossroads, but the storm disrupted the electricity, ripped up the holding shed and caused other damage, and Tuesday night the thousands of broilers were headed out to other processing plants before they died in the crates.

The winds had hardly abated when city street crews began the tremendous job of clearing the roads of limbs and debris. They and the water and electric crews began immediately to clear roads and repair damage. They were joined later by mobilized National Guardsmen who were still on duty Wednesday clearing and hauling away the scraps. State crews worked into the night Tuesday and were back on the job early Wednesday continuing their clearing job.

A few families from the northwest Florida area stayed in Elba until after the storm had passed. They occupied rooms at the local motel and at the local National Guard Armory, where Pension and Securities employees had set up emergency headquarters. Local citizens responded to a call for help and flooded the armory with food and bedding for the storm victims.

Both the towns of Kinston and New Brockton ran low on water, as the absence of electric current prevented the pumps from working.

Enterprise paid a heavy toll to Eloise as buildings were ripped apart, trailer after trailer overturned or pushed off foundations and thousands of trees fell, hitting homes, stores and automobiles.

The only known injury at press time was a man in Florida who suffered an apparent heart attack while sitting out the storm in a shelter in Ft. Walton Beach.

Football Coach Closes Book

Elba head football coach, Paul Bass, asked Superintendent Elmer Taylor for permission to make his resignation effective immediately instead of the end of the football season, as announced last week. Coach Bass made this request to the superintendent on Sunday afternoon, September 21, 1975. The superintendent asked Mr. Bass not to make a decision at this time, but to wait until Monday and discuss it with him and Lamar Foley, principal of Elba High School.

Mr. Foley and Superintendent Taylor held two meetings with Coach Bass on Monday morning, and following these two meetings, Coach Bass called the superintendent Monday afternoon and stated he still wanted to resign, effective immediately.

The superintendent told Mr. Bass that such a decision would have to be made by the school board. The superintendent asked the chairman of the school board to call a special meeting Monday afternoon. The meeting was set for 4:00 p.m. and the superintendent recommended that Coach Bass' request be honored. The Board voted unanimously to accept his recommendation.

Coach Bass told school officials that his first concern was still the boys on the football team, and that after many hours of study he felt this was the best move for the boys.

He recommended Coach Hinton Johns very highly to finish out the football season as head coach, and said he still believes the football players will settle down and concentrate on playing the winning football they are capable of playing.

Coach Bass stated this was his decision and the school board nor any other school official had asked him to make this change.

Mr. Bass will continue to teach Driver Education at Elba High School.

Assistant Coach Hinton Johns was unanimously named to fill the position as head football coach for the remainder of the current football season.

Projected Medicaid needs presented to the Legislature for fiscal year 1976 were $56.9 million. The Governor's budget specifies $54.1 million for Medicaid. This health care program for certain persons receiving public assistance, brings into Alabama approximately three dollars from Federal funds for each dollar the State appropriates.

Dr. Holzworth stated that because of the financial situation, Medicaid will withhold the October Medicaid Eligibility Cards until State funds have been appropriated and approved for the program. He has requested that recipients NOT contact either the Medical Services Administration or the offices of the Department of Pensions and Security and Social Security Administration, the two agencies that certify Medicaid eligibility.
